

Oxford Journals Online, run by Oxford University Press, covers Life Sciences, Mathematics & Physical Sciences, Medicines, Social sciences, humanities, and Law, and includes some of the most authoritative journals in their files. The database includes 230 academic journals and research journals covering a broad range of subject areas, two-thirds of which are published in collaboration with learned societies and other international organizations.

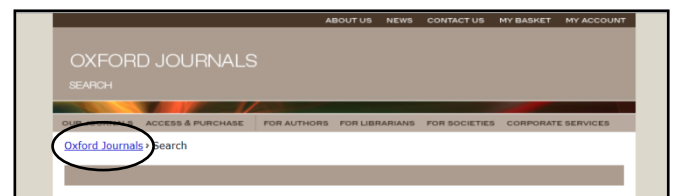

How to begin:

Go to <http://www.car.chula.ac.th/curef-db/slist.html#general> and select Oxford Journals Online, the data base Homepage will be displayed as the following.

For example, user simply types ① “business ethics” in the abstract/title field box, ② chooses “Social sciences” and click “Search”, see figures above.

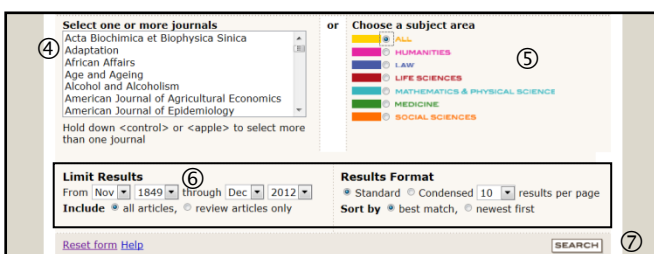

Browse & Simple Search

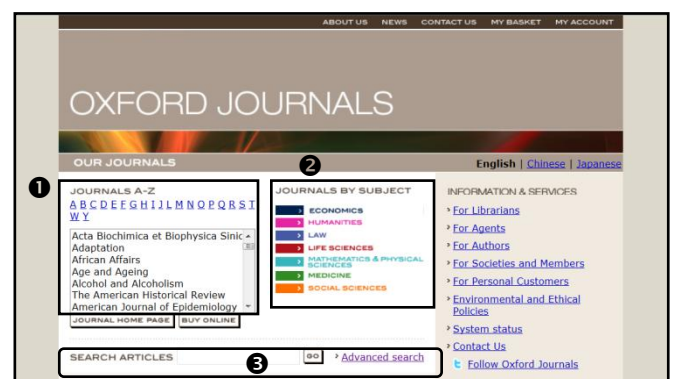

There are also Browse and simple Search options available on the main page. To browse, click on “Oxford Journals”, ① list of journals, ② choice of subject area for browse are displayed; and ③ “Search articles” is also given.

Advanced Search

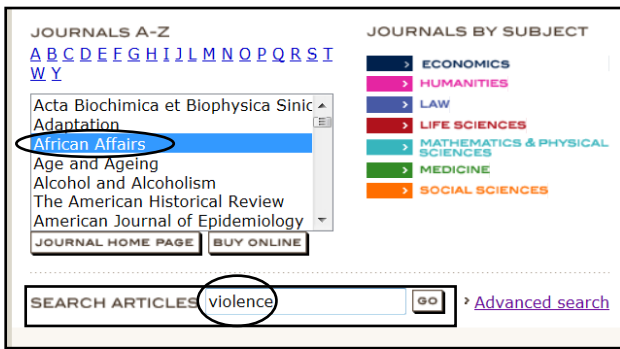

From the main page of Oxford Journals Online, user can use Advanced Search option with ① Keywords in any selected Field (title, abstract, or text), ② specific Citation, DOI of desired title, or ③ Authors.

Besides, on the same page, there are other options for user to narrow search, namely, ④ Select one or more journals, ⑤ Choose a subject area, or ⑥ Limit results by date, contents, and format, and ⑦ then click “Search”.

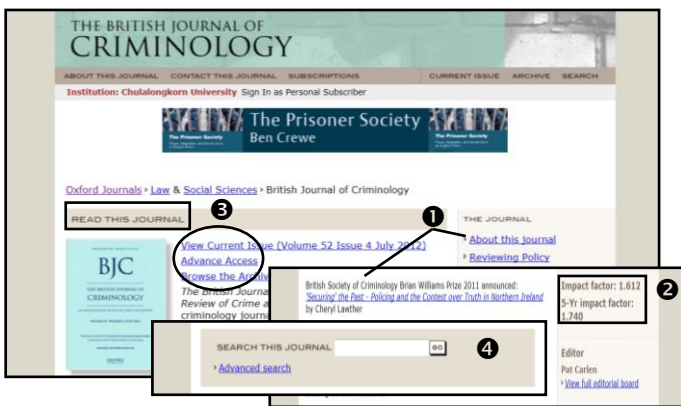

For example, user selects “African Affairs” journal, adds search word “violence” and clicks “GO” as below figure.

Search Results

User can work on results from either ① Browse Journals by Title or by Subject (and with/without Search articles), or ② Basic/Simple search and Advanced search as the following examples:

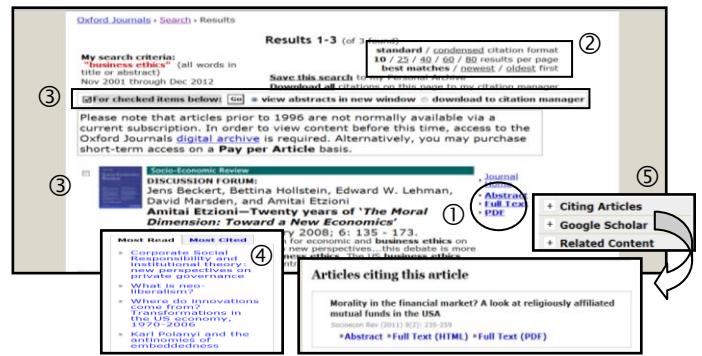

① Browse Journals

User selects “Law & Social Sciences” and clicks on “The British Journal of Criminology” and gets results as figures above, from which user can ① learn about this journal, ② read “Impact factor”, ③ view current / back issues, and ④ search more from this journal.

② Simple/Advanced Search

For “Advanced Search” of “Business ethics” from journals only, within “Social Sciences” subject, of which are published during 2000-2012, the results will be displayed as the next figures.

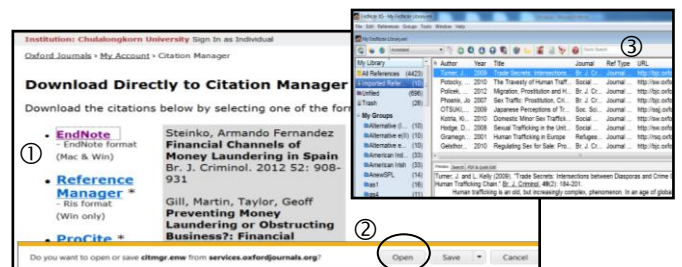

The results enable user to ① view abstract, full text, or download PDF, ② modify results format, ③ choose item for Citations export, ④ view “Most read / Most cited” articles, and ⑤ “Articles citing this articles”, and other information.

Export

For exporting citations directly to EndNote, user can ① select item(s) from search results, click on then “Download to citation manager”, and click “GO”. Another choice is ② selecting all items by clicking on “Download all citations”. Both options will prompt “Citation manager” screen below for user to ① choose EndNote, ② click “Open”, and selected citations will be ③ downloaded to EndNote.

Exit

Click on X at the top right menu bar to close the data base.
